

PARKER QUARTET 2019-20 Repertoire

PROGRAM I

Mozart: Quartet in D major, K. 499, "Hoffmeister"

*****

Schoenberg: Quartet No. 1 in D minor, Op. 7

One would assume that only differences would be found in a juxtaposition of the First and Second Viennese schools, but the thrill of discovering that they share the same roots is what makes this program unique. This is particularly true in this instance because of Schoenberg's first masterpiece, his Quartet No. 1 in D minor, which was written well before he dived into atonality. It is through and through a romantic work that pushes romanticism to its edge. It combines the drama and scale of a Wagner opera with Mahler's brilliant orchestration. Mozart's "Hoffmeister" quartet, with its effervescent, creative spirit, is a wonderful counterpart to the Schoenberg and reminds us of how infectious Mozart's music can be.

PROGRAM II

Esa-Pekka Salonen: Homunculus for String Quartet

Szymanowski: Quartet No. 2, Op. 56, M64

*****

Beethoven: Quartet in A minor, Op. 132

This program centers around the mystery and hope of birth (Salonen), and the revelatory thanksgiving for life (Beethoven).

PROGRAM III

Haydn: Quartet in E-flat major, Op. 33, No. 2, "The Joke"

Lutosławski : Quartet OR Shostakovich: Quartet No. 10 in A-flat major, Op. 118

*****

Dvořák: Quartet No. 13 in G major, Op. 106

Fun, wit, and deception threads its way through a series of works that highlight the unexpected. Haydn is full of humor, Lutoslawski is a master of creating suspense, and Dvořák constantly surprises us with harmonic twists and turns.
